Market Overview

City of Laredo

Laredo, Texas, was founded in 1755 and has grown into one of the largest and most dynamic cities in South Texas. Today, it spans roughly 107 square miles and is home to about 261,000 residents as of 2024. Serving as the county seat of Webb County, Laredo sits at a strategic point along the U.S.–Mexico border, connecting Interstate 35 directly to San Antonio, Austin, and Monterrey, Mexico. Its location has made it a central hub for international trade, transportation, and logistics, fueling steady growth and economic vitality.

Businesses and residents are drawn to Laredo for its strong economy, affordability, and quality of life. As home to the Port of Laredo, the largest inland port in the United States, the city facilitates billions of dollars in cross-border trade each year and supports thousands of jobs in logistics, manufacturing, and distribution. Laredo’s bilingual, bicultural workforce makes it ideal for international commerce, while its affordable housing, family-friendly environment, and growing infrastructure attract new residents. With its rich history, economic strength, and community-oriented atmosphere, Laredo continues to thrive as a place where both businesses and families can succeed.

- Strategic Trade Location: Positioned on the U.S.–Mexico border, Laredo offers direct access to major highways (I-35, I-69, and U.S. 83) and serves as the largest inland port in the U.S., making it ideal for logistics, warehousing, and distribution.
- Robust International Commerce: The Port of Laredo facilitates over $300 billion in annual trade, providing businesses access to global markets and a steady flow of cross-border commerce.
- Business-Friendly Environment: Texas’ pro-business policies—no state income tax, competitive operating costs, and available incentives—make Laredo an attractive location for startups and expanding companies.
- Growing Infrastructure and Economy: Continuous investment in transportation, industrial parks, and technology infrastructure supports sustainable growth and makes Laredo one of Texas’ fastest-growing trade and logistics hubs.

The Port of Laredo

The Port of Laredo is the largest inland port in the United States and a critical engine for both the local and national economy. In 2024, it handled approximately $339 billion in total trade—around $128 billion in exports and $210.8 billion in imports—making it the busiest land port of entry on the U.S.–Mexico border. This massive flow of goods supports a wide range of industries, including logistics, transportation, manufacturing, and customs brokerage. Thousands of trucks cross the border each day, and the port’s efficiency plays a major role in keeping supply chains running smoothly across North America.

The port’s economic impact extends far beyond trade statistics. It supports tens of thousands of local jobs and fuels growth in related sectors such as warehousing, freight forwarding, and international business services. The revenue generated by cross-border commerce helps fund infrastructure improvements, business development, and workforce training throughout the region. As global trade continues to expand, the Port of Laredo remains a cornerstone of economic opportunity for the city and a vital link in the broader U.S.–Mexico economic relationship.

Texas A&M International University

Texas A&M International University (TAMIU) in Laredo, Texas, is a public university within the Texas A&M University System and serves over 8,000 students annually. Founded in 1969, TAMIU provides a bilingual and multicultural learning environment that reflects the region’s U.S.–Mexico border community. The university has grown into a hub for academic excellence and global perspectives while maintaining strong ties to Laredo’s cultural and economic landscape.

TAMIU offers a wide range of programs, including bachelor’s, master’s, and doctoral degrees in fields such as business, education, nursing, criminal justice, and international trade. Specialized doctoral programs, like the Ph.D. in International Business and the Ph.D. in Criminal Justice, emphasize the university’s focus on preparing students for global careers. Known for its affordability and academic quality, TAMIU supports first-generation and bilingual students while fostering research, professional development, and community engagement.

Living near the university is appealing because of its affordable cost of living, vibrant community, and access to professional opportunities in Laredo’s growing economy. The 300-acre campus features modern facilities, housing, and recreational spaces, while its proximity to trade routes and the Port of Laredo provides valuable internships and career connections. Combined with the city’s cultural richness and expanding business environment, the area surrounding TAMIU offers a balanced lifestyle that blends education, career opportunities, and quality of life.

Laredo International Airport

Laredo International Airport is a key transportation hub serving Laredo and the surrounding South Texas region. While it primarily handles general aviation and cargo flights, the airport also supports limited commercial passenger service. Its strategic location near the U.S.-Mexico border makes it an important gateway for cross-border business and trade, allowing goods and personnel to move efficiently between the two countries. The airport features modern facilities, runways capable of handling large cargo aircraft, and logistics infrastructure that supports both domestic and international operations.

Economically, Laredo International Airport plays a significant role in the region's commerce and trade activity. It supports cargo operations that complement the nearby Port of Laredo, facilitating the movement of goods such as electronics, automotive parts, and industrial supplies. The airport also generates local employment in aviation services, logistics, and related support industries, while attracting business travelers and companies that rely on quick and reliable air transportation. By enhancing connectivity and supporting trade and transportation networks, the airport contributes directly to Laredo's economic growth and its status as a major U.S.-Mexico trade hub.

Information About Brokerage Services

2-10-2025

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent. An owner's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent. A buyer/tenant's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
